

Heather Lawson

My hospitality journey began almost 20 years ago! Fueled by a passion for crafting exceptional guest experiences and building authentic connections, I thrive in fast-paced environments always aiming to provide outstanding service with a smile and a personal touch.

TODAY, I RECOMMEND

Today and always, I recommend ANY of our fresh baked sweets: )

My favorite food memory takes me back to 2014 where I spent 6 weeks training at a Corporate establishment in Minnesota. I was pregnant with my son at the time, diving deep into the fundamentals of the kitchen while also nurturing new life. It was an incredible experience.

What does hospitality mean to you?

Hospitality means so much more than just serving food and drinks. To me, it's about creating meaningful memorable moments for others. It's the art of making people feel seen, valued and cared for, no matter how big or small the interaction. I want to make a lasting impression and make people feel at home.
